BOYS' CONFERENCE AROUSING INTEREST

State Gathering May Be Attended By More Than Three Hundred

The State Older Boys' Conference, to be held in this city November 23, 27 and 28, promises to be one of the largest conferences ever held by this organization, as the entertainment committee, of which George F. Rodgers is chairman, report cards coming in indicating an attendance of more than 300.

It is Salem's privilege to entertain these young men, coming from all parts of the state and to treat them so generously that they will carry to their homes the good word that the people of the city are back of and encourage the work of the Older Boys' conference.

The following letter has been issued by Governor Withycombe:
Salem, Ore., Nov. 15, 1915.

To the Boys of Oregon:
There will be held at Salem the Older Boys' conference of Oregon on the 26th, 27th and 28th of November, and I am told that boys' organizations throughout the state are expected to attend.

Throughout the country the worth of boys' work and boys' play is becoming to be recognized more and more. Both are also becoming better organized. I personally believe most heartily in the development of the club idea among boys. The development of boys' clubs is a work which receives my heartiest commendation and I want the boys of Oregon to understand that if I can help them in any way to get more out of life, either in their work or in their play, they may count upon my help and friendship.

I hope every boys' organization in Oregon will be represented and I hope that just as many will be in attendance as possibly can arrange to be there. Gatherings for the exchange of ideas and the working out of plans of co-operation are extremely valuable and should be encouraged to the fullest degree possible. The one big secret of progress is to see "what the other fellow is doing" and if he is doing something a little better than you are, then try to find out the secret of his efficiency and copy it, or, on the other hand, if you have some secret of success of your own, pass it on to him for his benefit.

JAMES WITHYCOMBE,
Governor.

Sends Check For $1500 To Pay For Auto License

Secretary of State Oleott this morning received a check for $1,500 from a Portland man to pay for an auto license for 1916. The price for auto licenses ranges from $3 to $10 according to the horse power of the engine and the price for the license tag for this particular car was $5. Mr. Oleott returned the check with the request that another for only $5 be sent. The car for which the license was wanted is a Hudson 1914 model and it is evident that the $1,500 check was an error as this amount was nearer the purchase price of the car.

to prosecute the case. Judge Belt, accompanied by court reporter, Miss B. P. Barrett, is in McMinnville this week holding a session of the circuit court for Yamhill county. The Booth murder case comes up for hearing at this term.

We never do things by halves. For instance—quarter sizes in collars.

And speaking of quarter sizes, you'll find many stores that poo-hoo the idea—they don't want to double up their stock of collars—want to do business as grandfather did.

Quarter sizes, or good collars, or courteous attention, or whatever it may be—has doubled our collar business the past six months and still we're not satisfied. We're after YOU as a collar patron.

"Western" Headquarters Are Three Days' Journey Eastward From Oregon

State Engineer John H. Lewis returned last night from a trip to Chicago where he landed at the headquarters of the Western Society of Civil Engineers after a three day's journey eastward from this state. The discussions at this meeting of the western civil engineers was on matters relating to water rights and titles. No definite action was taken and no details were worked out on the proposed national legislation which it is considered is needed to place water rights and titles upon a firm and universal basis in United States.

The next meeting of the engineers will be held in New York in January and will not be held on the western frontier at Chicago.

WARRANT FOR KRAUSE'S ARREST

Juneau, Alaska, Nov. 12. — With a warrant out for his arrest on a charge of impersonating a United States marshal and with scores of people here and at the Treadwell mines looking for him, it is believed that if Edward Krause is found he may be able to explain the disappearance of William Christie, amalgamator at the Treadwell mines. Christie was married recently. Krause is said to have been a rival for the young woman's affections.

Federation May Adopt Oregon Man's Idea

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—Indications today were that the delegates to the national convention of the American Federation of Labor, in session here, will adopt a resolution offered by Fred L. Bourne, of Oregon, providing for the appointment of a committee to investigate craft unionism and industrial unionism. The committee, if decided upon, will be asked to report to the 1916 convention.

Bourne holds that the federation should be developed distinctly along one line or the other. The principle of industrial unionism, its adherents pointed out, would unite all workers in any industry in a common body instead of the various craft branches necessary under the other system.

Polk County Goats Win At Exposition

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Dallas, Ore., Nov. 12.—Word was received in Dallas Thursday morning that William Riddell & Sons of Monmouth, won three first prizes in three sections for Angora goats at the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco, Wednesday.
